

A BRUTAL LYNCHING.

A DETERMINED MOB'S WORK

They Successfully Assault a Jail, Capture the Murderer, Drag Him Through the Streets, Hang Him and Riddle

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 14.—A special from Harrison, Ark., says: Andrew J.

Mulligan, alias James Page, the murderer of James N. Hamilton, was taken from the jail here by a mob last night and shot dead. Mulligan was brought here from Macon county.

where he committed the crime, for safe keeping. Last night about 12 o'clock a number of mounted men appeared near the jail, reconnoitered for a time and then rode away. About an hour later thirty-five heavily armed and the jail, captured the guards and jailer, the latter of whom they ordered to open the doors. This he refused to do, but the keys were taken from him and the prisoners were dragged forth. A rope was placed around his neck and he was liter-the distance of four blocks, where the end of the rope was thrown over a limb of a tree and as the murderer was drawn up into the air his body was riddled with bullets. The mounted mob then rode away, having accomplished its object.

who owned a farm in Macon county, and shot his employer without cause on the 22d of October.

***

THE JOHNSON LYNCHING.

Trying to get a Jury to Hear the Case of the Prisoners.

Chattanooga, Mo., Nov. 10. The Cl...

Circuit Court for Allegheny county has been busy all this week trying to get a jury to try four prisoners on the charge of lynching an insane man. The case is unique and interesting. Edward White was an employe of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad shops at Piedmont, W. Va. He lived in Westernport, a village opposite Piedmont.

About midday on the 14th of September last on his way home to dinner, he began to ascend a ladder which led to a path which he was to take. At the top of the ladder stood David Johnson, a middle-aged man, generally supposed to be insane. He held in his hands a double-barrel shot-gun. Without uttering a word he raised the gun and fired both barrels at Williams. He fired three times, the first shot hitting Williams in the chest, the second in the back of the head and the third in the back of the neck.

The barbarous lynching of the insane man created an intense sensation, and efforts were at once made to arrest the perpetrators of the crime. The four men indicted by the grand jury were John P. Malone, Timothy White, John P. F. White and Patrick A. Driscoll. The case came up for trial this week. Over 2000 persons were summoned before a jury could be obtained. The twelfth man was agreed upon yesterday, and the trial is now proceeding. The array of counsel is strong and the contest will be vigorous on all sides. It will last for some time. The prosecution claims that the entire lynching was done by the four men, with Malone as the principal, and the others before he was hung up with the rope. A crowbar, a piece of rope, a two pound weight and a sharp axe are the instruments exhibited in the court room as the ones with which the crime was committed.

♦ ♦ ♦

HELLAIRE BRIEFS.

Personal and News Chat From Across the River.

Henry Lindstrom is hunting deer in the Allegheny mountains.

The Sunday school of the Christian church will hereafter be held in the morning.

The work of laying gas pipes, delayed by the bad weather, was continued yesterday.

The new pastor, Rev. W. S. Campbell, preached his first sermon yesterday at the Trinity Episcopal Chapel.

The work of making the embankments of the Ohio Valley railroad at Pinch run, J. W. Somers, now of Cincinnati, formerly owner of the upper wharf boat here, was in town Saturday.

A number of the pupils of the high school attended the county teachers' examination at Belmont Saturday.

There were the usual services at the churches yesterday, except that there was no preaching at the First Presbyterian Church.

The real estate of the late Mrs. Oriswell is to be sold to day by the administrators.

The Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad changed time yesterday, but very little alteration was made at this end of the road.

The case of Owen Kain for removing a body from a lot in the Catholic cemetery

Yesterday the First Presbyterian Sun-at the removal from town of Mr. H. H. Free, the treasurer and one of the teachers, and of Mrs. H. G. Hartenstein, the organist.

of Gettysburg to-night, at the Elysian Theatre, is attracting the attention of some of the old soldiers here who took part in the battle. The battle is said to be splendidly described and the large paint-ng exhibits shows specially the charge on Hancock's line where some Bellairre-illery men were stationed.

---

THE CONDEMNED ANARCHISTS.

Their Cases to be Carried to the Supreme Court—Probable Respite.
CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—A letter received from Col. Robert G. Ingersoll says that he had not the time to connect himself in any way with the case of the Anarchist, and therefore would have nothing whatever to do with it. The certificate at last been signed, filed and put on record in the office of the Clerk of the Criminal Court. To-morrow the paper—or bale of paper—will be transcribed to proceed to reach the ear of any member of the Supreme bench, as the court is not now in session, and from him endeavor to secure a supersedeas so as to restrain the execution of the sentence. At the March term of the Supreme Court the case will be called for consideration. Thus the condemned are respited for many months, although Mr. Grinnell has said, by way of argument, "A suparadeas may not be

In France they read more Russian novels than French, according to a recent authority.